

The Foslin

St. Wendelin High School

Fostoria, Ohio

Volume 36, 1964

Dedication

"Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country." These immortal words of a martyred president go down in history as a dynamic challenge to every graduate of every Commencement Class in America. It is fitting and right that an eternal flame now burns in solemn memory of this Lincolnesque patriot of America. In the flickering symbol of that eternal flame, America's youth can find the inspiring answer to their own quest for greatness and service.

Accordingly, to JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, international peace-worker, protagonist of civil rights, and thirty-fourth President of the United States of America, We, the Graduating Class of 1964, dedicate the thirty-sixth volume of THE FOSLIN.

Tribute

The Very Reverend Monsignor Louis Walter

"Many are called, but few are chosen," and even fewer join the elevated ranks of the Monsignori. For this distinction, Very Reverend Monsignor Walter, we congratulate you! We are confident that you will continue to aid St. Wendelin Parish in its various parochial endeavors.

An impressive addition to St. Wendelin High School stands as a tribute to your excellence, testifying to your energetic devotion to St. Wendelin. Again, congratulations and our sincere vote of appreciation we extend to you, Monsignor Walter!

—The Class of 1964

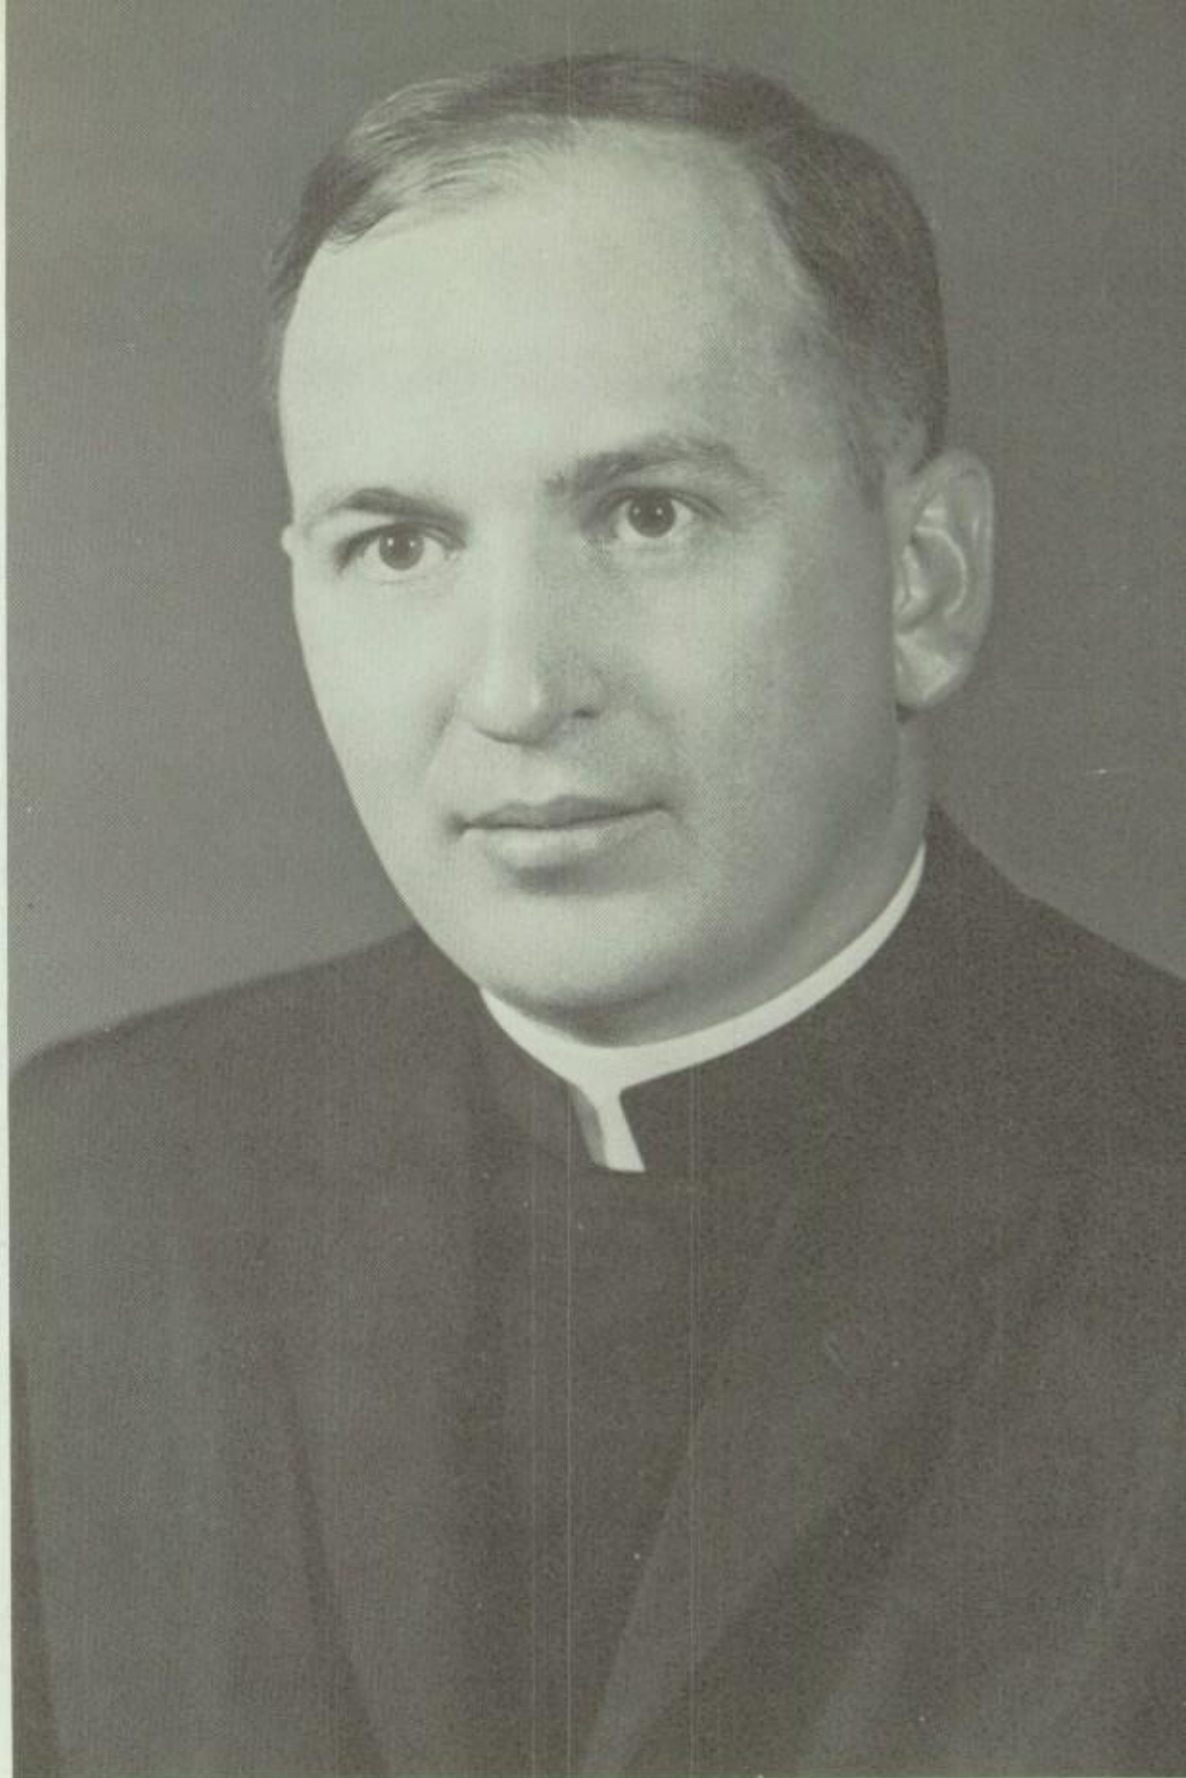

In Appreciation . . .

To you, our Principal Father Donald Hunter, we owe an unrequitable debt of gratitude for these past four years during which you have been counselor, teacher, principal, and guiding friend.

We shall ever strive to attain the goals which you have set for us: spiritually, culturally, and educationally. In our efforts to achieve these goals, we hope always to be a credit to you and to St. Wendelin High School.

Office Personnel

Trying to fulfill the scholastic needs of Principal Father Donald Hunter and of the students at S.W.H.S. is a big task. The office secretaries, however, always seem to have things under control. Mrs. Adelle Lininger completes a form on the Selectric, while Mrs. Ida Crawford discusses a program with Father Hunter.

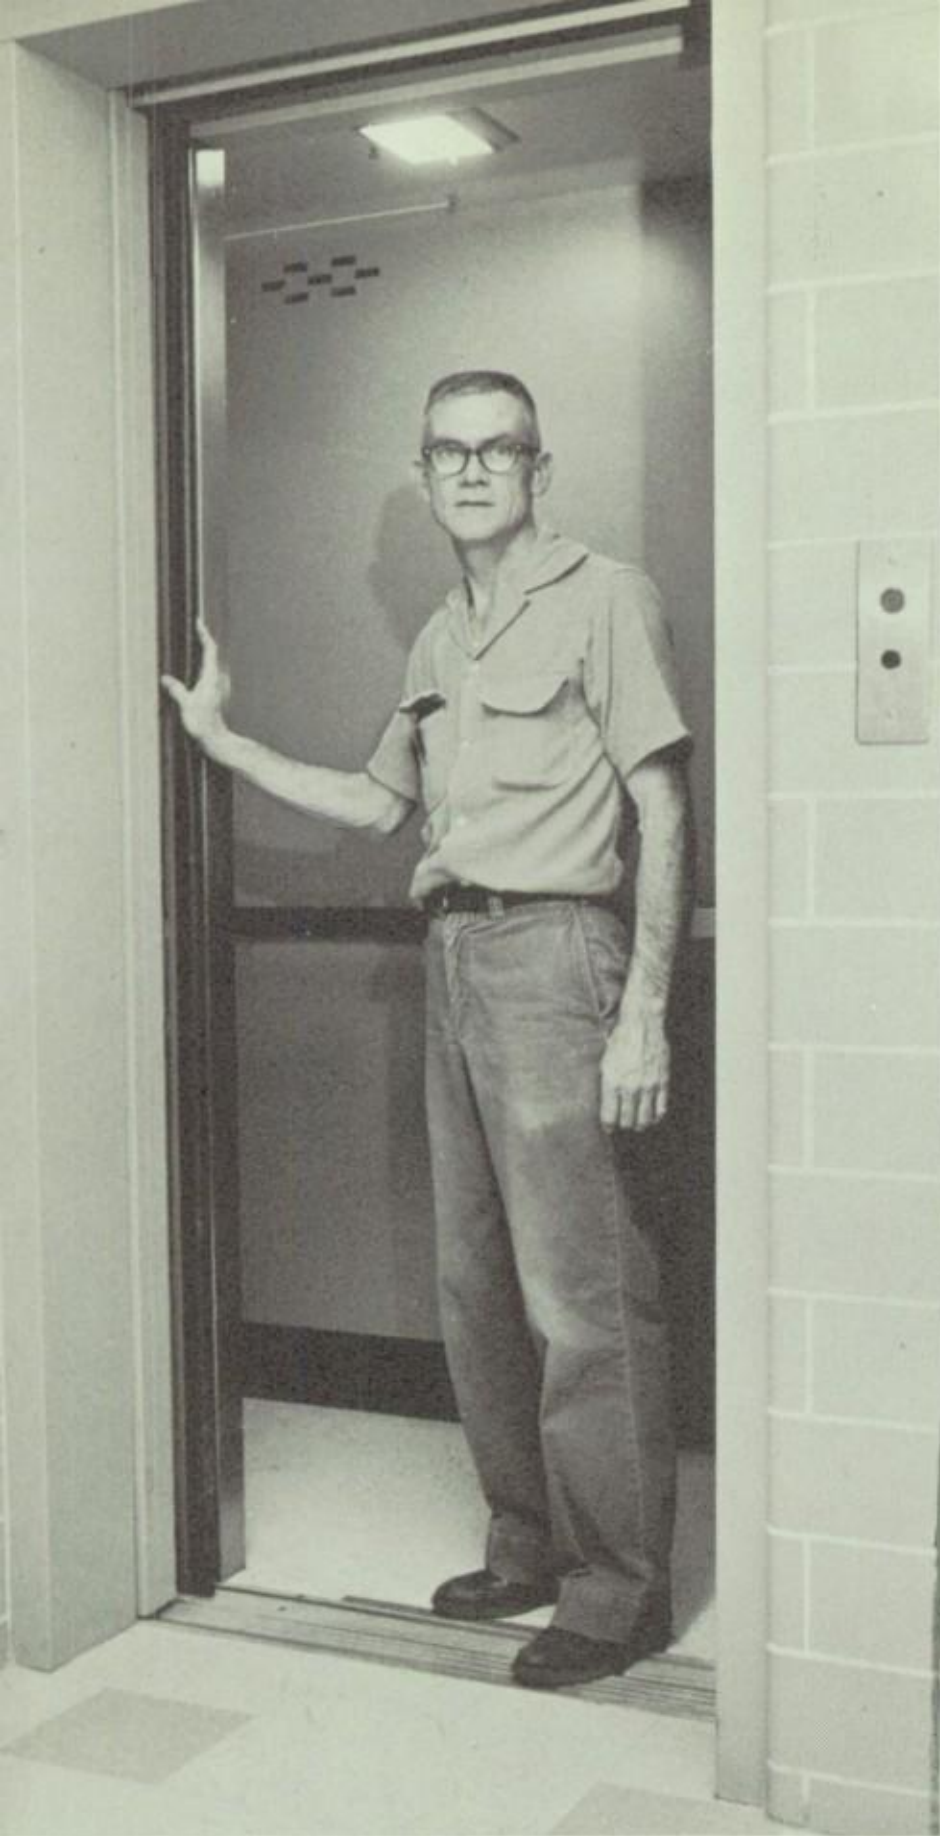

Lay Faculty

"Summit Conferencing" in Father Hunter's office is St. Wendelin's distinguished lay faculty: Mr. Timothy McGee, music; Mr. L. Edward Wasserman, science and mathematics; Mr. John Pocs, English and bookkeeping; Mr. Matthew Sobon, social studies; the Rev. Donald S. Hunter, principal, Latin, and sociology; Mr. Gerald Giles, English; Mr. Charles Bryant, physical education and assistant coach; Mr. Kenneth Herman, civics instructor, athletic director, and head football coach; and Mr. Richard Hearden, social studies and head basketball coach.

Service with a Smile

A school day, a cafeteria, and wide smiles reveal that Mrs. Norton Boyer, Mrs. Alvin Grine, Mrs. Robert Hoover, and Mrs. Joseph Gase enjoy their work servicing the cafeteria. When the student body and faculty return for seconds, or take seconds right away, one can be sure it is due to the fact that S.W.H.S.'s chefs have a culinary creativeness everyone relishes.

Mr. Gordon Scott, hard-working member of the maintenance department, pauses in the entrance of the elevator before resuming his duties.

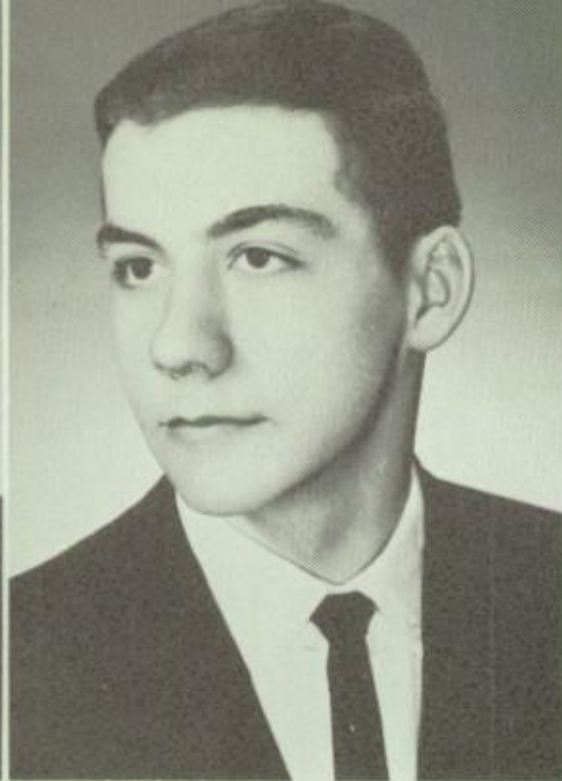

Chief maintenance engineer, Mr. Charles Macias ("Charlie" to the students), applies his skill as electrician and carpenter. In addition to maintaining the school, Charlie manages to maintain that ever-present smile.

Mr. Wilfred Kuhn, third member of the maintenance crew, preferred not to pose for a picture.

Family Circle

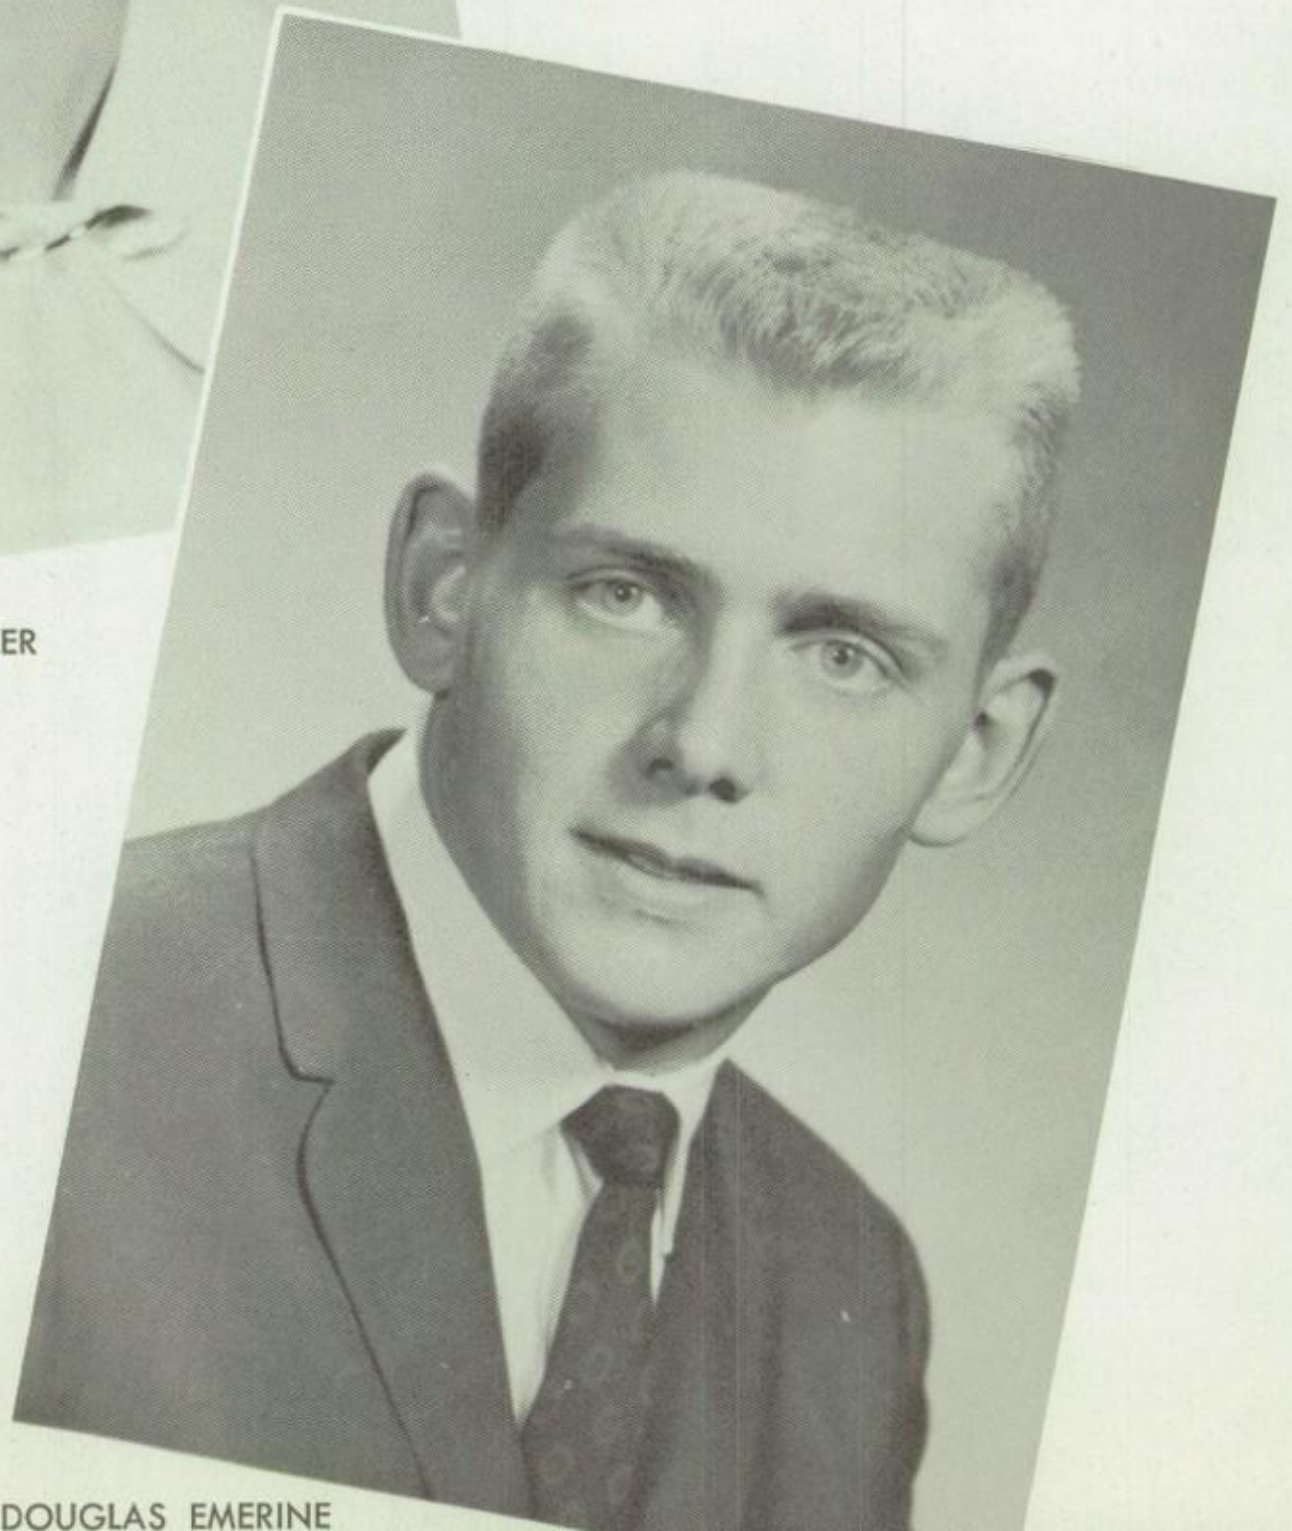

The 1964 FOSLIN Staff pays tribute to Dr. R. S. Markey, loyal parishioner, team physician, and genuine friend to SWHS, for the past ten years. In gracious compliance with the request of the staff, Dr. Markey takes time out from a busy schedule to pose with his wonderful family consisting of his wife and thirteen children: (On Floor) Sean Timothy and Matthew Gerald; (On Chairs) Colleen Elizabeth, Mrs. Helen Markey, holding Shannon Jerome, Seamas Brendan, Dr. Markey, holding Brian Joseph, and Siobhan Gabrielle; (Standing) Kathryn Lynn, Maureen Elaine, Mary Melissa, Camille Anne, Patrick Lee, and Anne Michele.

On the Vocation Front

Two members of the Class of '64 have dedicated their lives to the service of Christ in religion. Douglas Emerine is at present studying in Our Lady of the Lake Seminary, Wauwassee, Indiana. Kathleen Zoeller will receive the habit of the Sisters of Notre Dame in Toledo, Ohio, next August.

TAMING OF THE SHREW.

Bernard McInerney as Petruchio is trying to tame a very unwilling bride, Joy Mills as Kate, in Shakespeare's world-famous comedy.

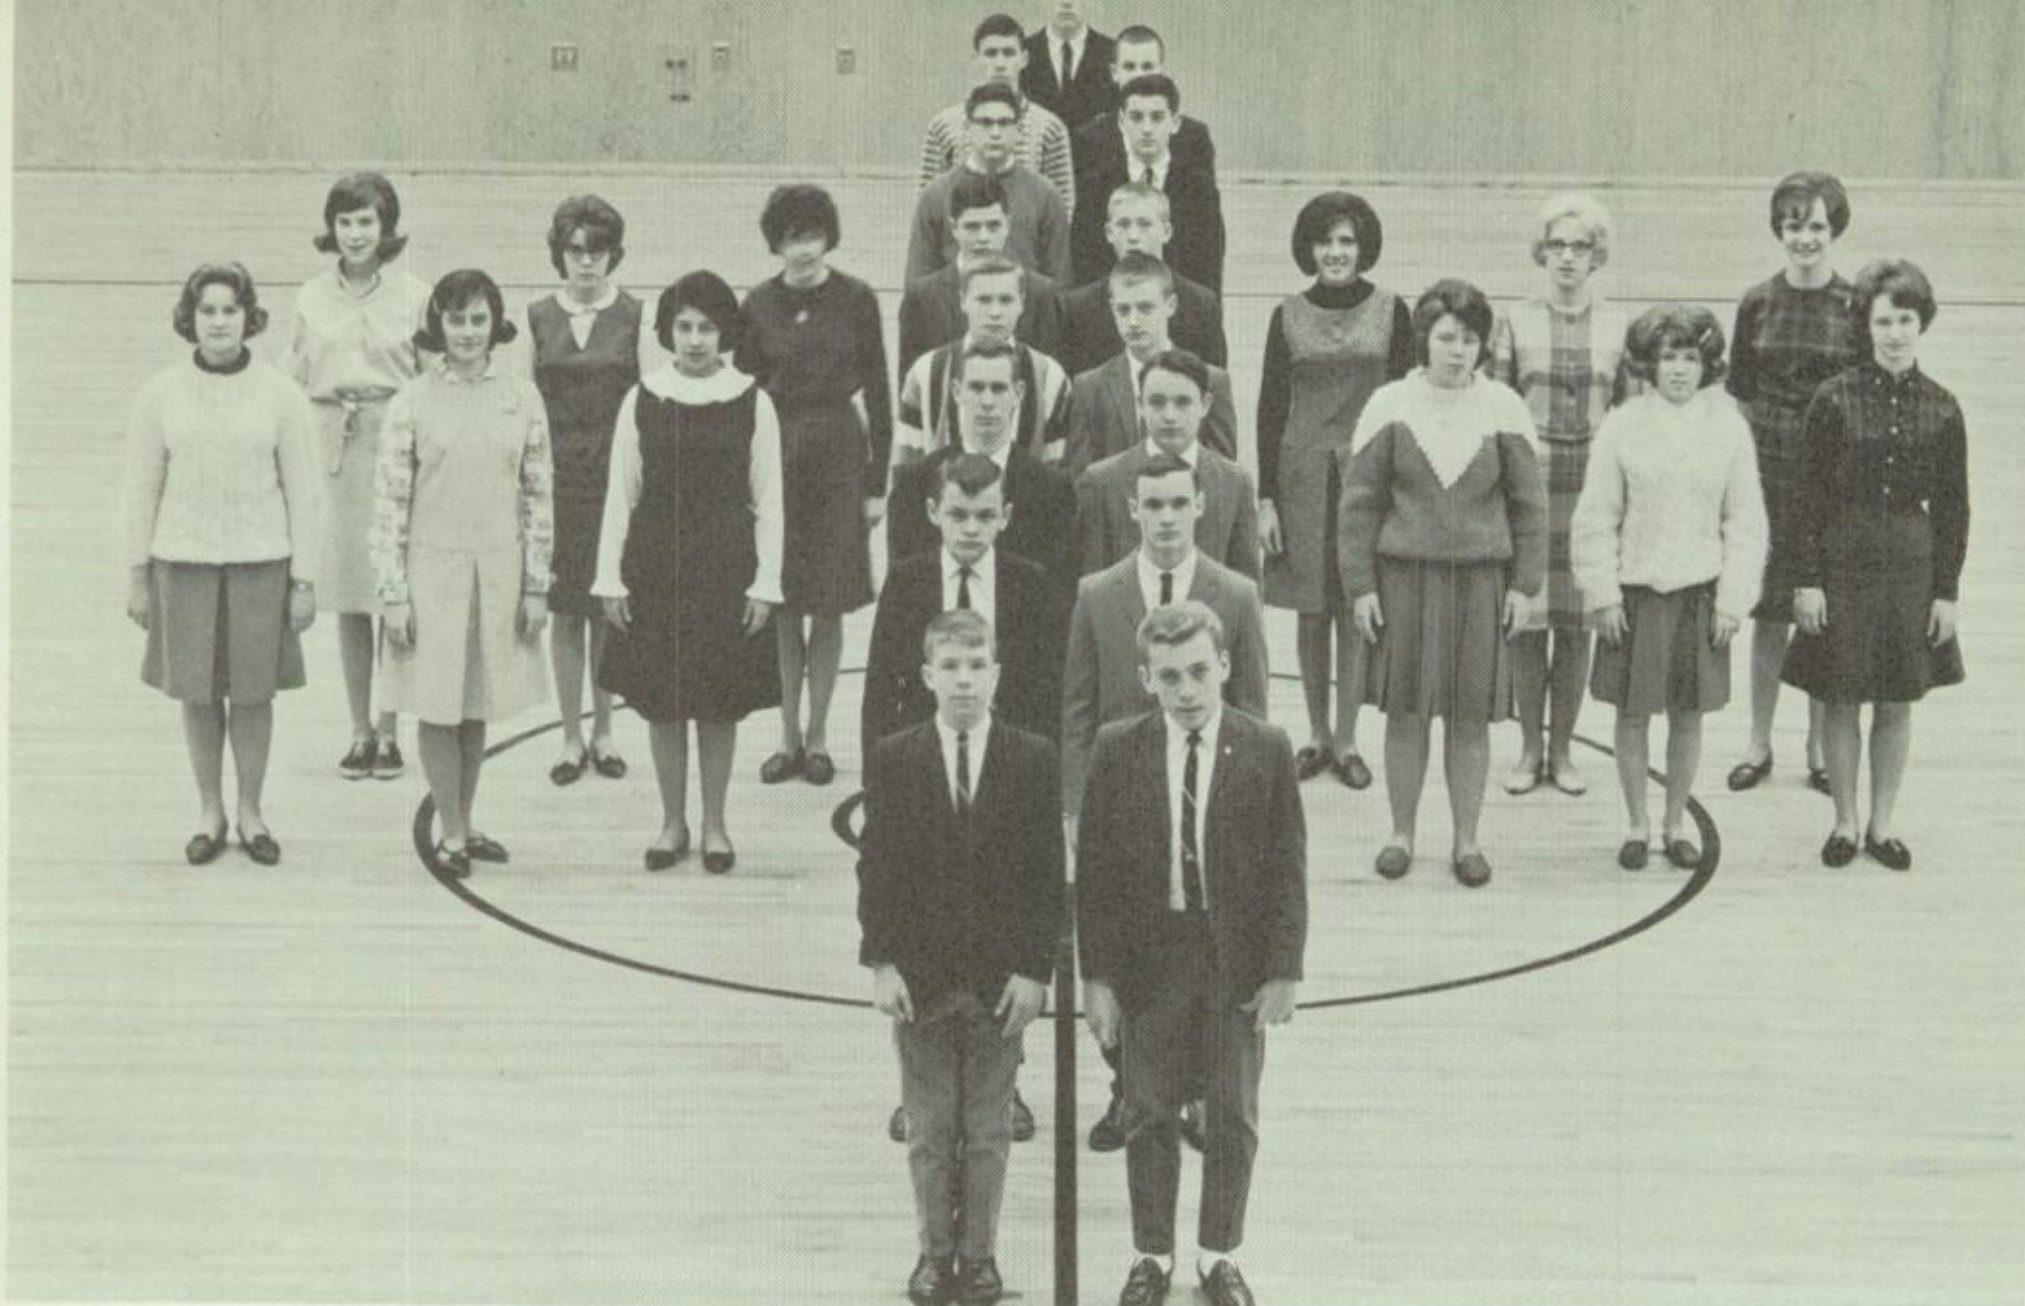

David Little plays the title role in Sophocles' OEDIPUS REX, the downfall of the great but ill-fated king.

STUDENT LIFE

Paying tribute to Father Hunter's ten years of service at S.W.H.S. is the vocally gifted division of the Sophomore Latin Class. The "Sing-a-Long with Caesar" group included: G. Buchman, K. Lord, M. Delgado, D. Grine, D. Cool, M. Frisch, S. Bryant, K. Sertell, S. Bryant, G. Nye, E. Rumschlag, and D. Frankart. The supporting baritones: G. Peltier, R. Brickner, R. Borer, R. Lonsway, G. Lonsway, T. Baker, T. Yost, M. Schroeder, B. Huber, M. Steinmetz, M. Sheeran, R. Rinehart, D. Parker, J. Kiebel, and D. Montgomery.

"Brain Trust-ers," alias members of the 1964 Honor Society, pose with their moderator, Principal Father Donald S. Hunter: (Row 1) B. Marley, C. Affholder, G. Allis, M. Delgado, K. Sertell, G. Buchman, and Father Hunter. (Row 2) M. Scherger, P. Murrin, S. Coppus, J. Roberts, A. Strouse, J. Kinn, G. Nye, S. Welly, and S. Bryant. (Row 3) M. Lowery, B. Hay, J. Cool, C. Elchert, P. Huth, C. Speelman, K. La Fontain, C. Markey, P. Smith, and K. Lord. (Row 4) P. Schetter, J. Cook, S. Droll, D. Grine, M. Scharf, M. Schroeder, B. Droll, S. Bryant, G. Nye, and J. Kiebel. (Row 5) J. Bulkowski, D. Clouse, M. Steinmetz, D. Scherger, R. Borer, T. Schetter, R. Brickner, G. Peltier, G. Grine, R. Lonsway, S. Balser, and D. Parker.

Ever wonder who keeps the chapel in order following the daily Mass? Here are Terry Waltermeyer, Marie Brickner, Mary Huber, and Virginia Lopez attending to the polishing and cleaning of the sanctuary and to the replacing of the altar linens.

These four faithful choristers race the sun in rising each morning. Gerry Allis, Jane Roberts, Barb Lonsway, and Sharon Miller are the peppy gals who sing the 6:15 Mass at the parish church, under the direction of Mrs. Richard Zeyen.

Prompt and faithful are Kateri La Fontain and Joseph Reinhart, SWHS organists. They have sacrificed those extra minutes of shut-eye to play for the 7:40 daily Student Mass.

The senior acolytes pose with their moderator, Father Robert Donnelly. These knights of the altar have been devoted and dependable servers throughout their entire high-school years.

"War and Peace": James Thies and Ronald Williams enact a realistic incident from World War II for Mr. Matthew Sobon's American History class.

Freshman scholars focus their attention on Mr. Richard Hearden who emphasizes key facts in Ancient History.

Jim Herman seems to be taking rapid notes on a profound panel discussion being given by World History students: Lucy Reese, Terry Mitchell, Roberta Waltermeyer, Stu King, Joyce Boes, and Mike Lonsway. Mr. Richard Hearden is the instructor.

Pioneering a new French Club has been the achievement of the following 1964 officers: Bonnie Hay, Patti Murrin, Terry Mitchell, Jane Faeth, Kathy Lord, and Georgie Nye.

Mr. John Pocs introduced a new and different course of literature to his Juniors in English III this year. Some fact seems to have Norman Pieffer a little puzzled!

"Entre Les Etoiles," in English "Under the Stars" was sung by the French classes in dedication to President John F. Kennedy. Representing each French class are Mary Ann Scharf, Pedro Perez, Jane Elchert, Mike Frias, and Jane Faeth.

"Acidic or basic?" is the $64.00 question these future scientists ask themselves. Mike Lonsway tries to find a logical answer to the experiment prepared by Jim Frankart. Kathy Murrin plays the role of secretary for the group.

Gretchen Nye provides the model, while seamstress Camille Markey alters the gown.

Mary Huber, home economist, describes various colors and fabrics for her audience consisting of Paulette Emerine, Sharon Miller, and Mary Gase.

The art of table setting belongs to those who learn! Arranging a few of the last minute details of a coming luncheon are Connie Frisch, Jeanette Hammer, and Sharon Ferguson.

"H-mmmml I wonder where all this tape came from?" puzzles Jim Crawford. Serving as his assistant is Claudia Haslinger. Other diligent typists, not so curious about the mechanical functions of their machines, are Mike Frias and Sue Hammer.

These future secretaries pose with Sister Mary Johnene, business education instructor: Dorothy Frisch, Barb Lonsway, Mary Haubert, Mickie Weidner, Elaine Saldusky, and Roberta Waltermeyer.

"Not so fast, Father," is the plea of Joyce Boes, Diane Wagner, Jane Roberts, Yvonne Brickner, Carol Lyons, and Norma Thompson. The girls wrestle with their shorthand trying to keep up with Father Donald Hunter's rapid dictation pace.

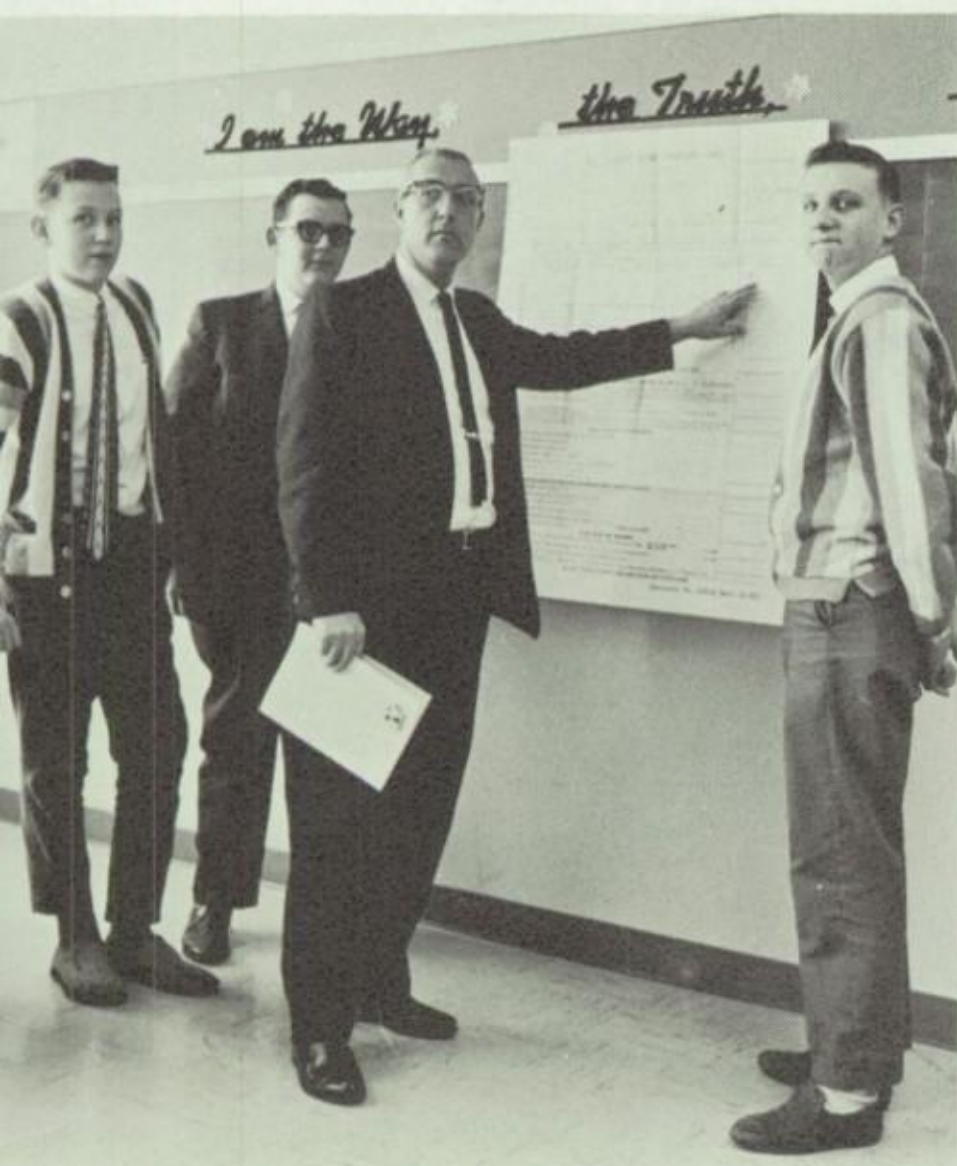

Senior draftsman, Steve Kinn, follows the directives of Mr. Matthew Sobon as he shows Daniel Saldusky how to blue-print the floor plans of an imaginary home.

"But my polygon has 21 sides . . . including the inside," Rex Speelman confidently informs his geometry teacher, Mr. Leon Wasserman. Offering some helpful suggestions to Rex are Charles Bulkowski and Pat Hagenmaier.

It looks as though Robert Williams, Steve Emerine, and Ronald Williams seem to be doubting Mr. Kenneth Herman's word on the facts he's giving them concerning the tax form. Perhaps the boys would rather meditate on a short cut to determining income tax.

Mr. John Pocs is the adviser for these senior bookkeeping students. At this time, Mr. Pocs is giving them some pointers on how to keep their plus and minus signs in the proper place.

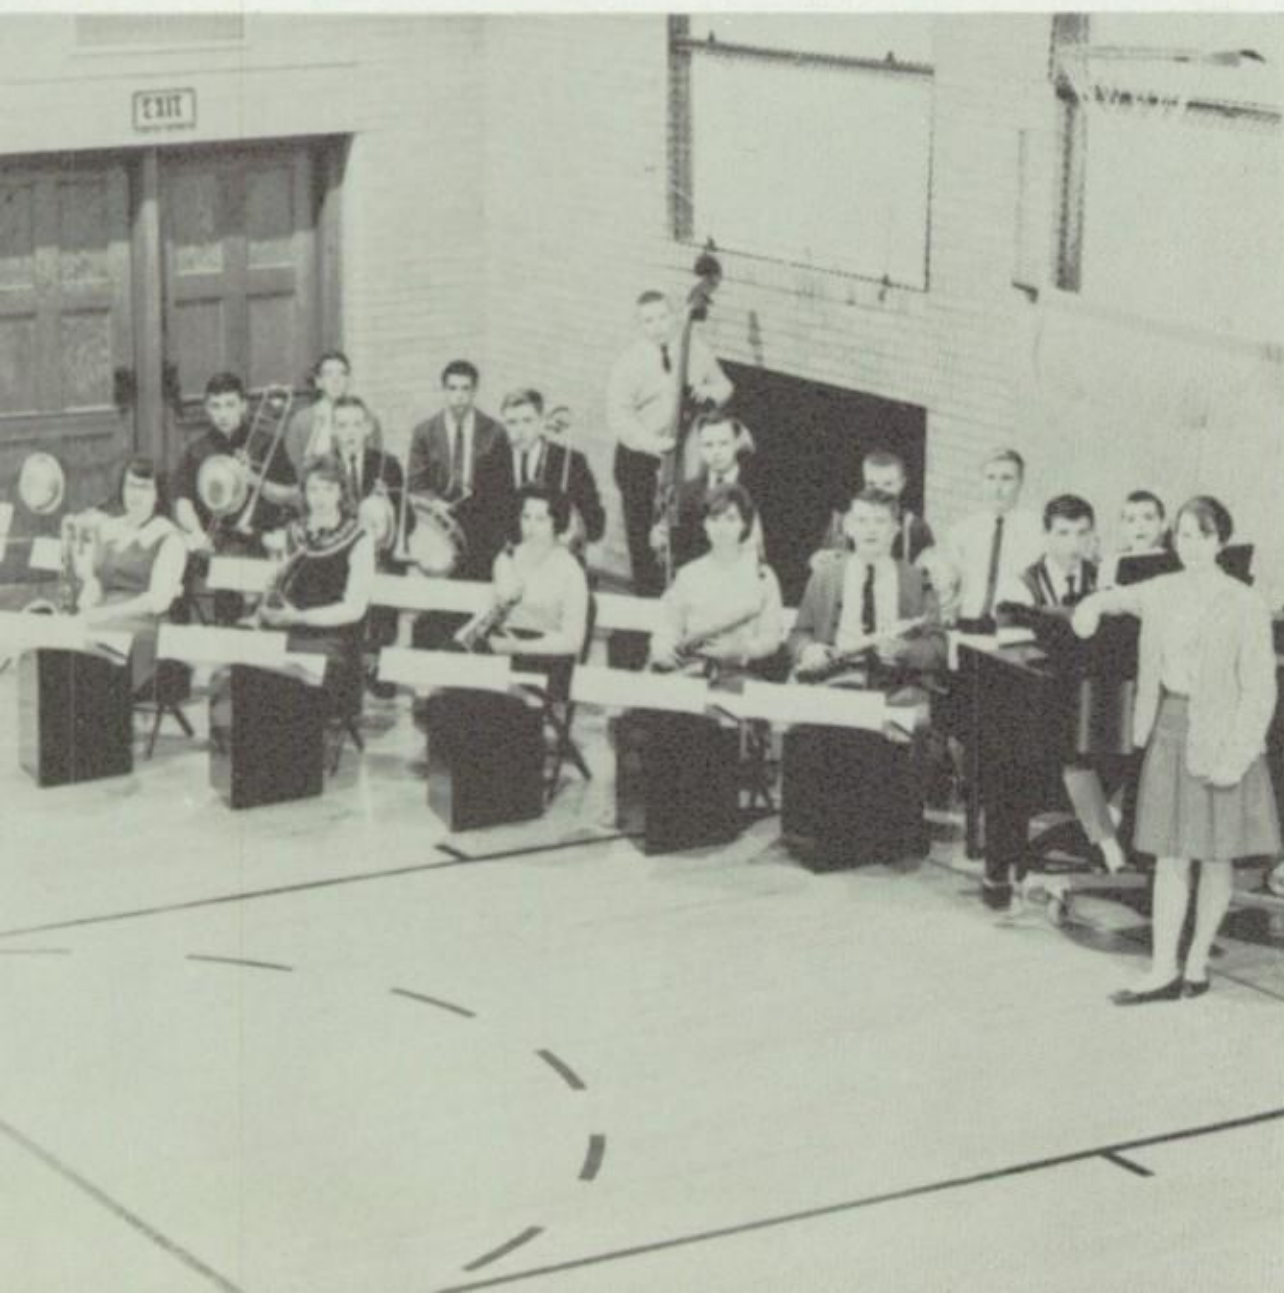

These five senior Glee Club officers have the makings of good singers and that's exactly what they do each day—sing. Sitting: Carolynn Affholder and Marie Brickner; Standing: Janice Cool, Paulette Emerine, and Mary Huber.

The sweet melodious warblings that issue forth from the Glee Club are produced by (Row 1) P. McCormick, P. Buchman, K. Graham, P. Holman, and J. Affholder; (Row 2) L. Yost, D. Guzman, S. Boff, and V. Lannen; (Row 3) V. Hammer, B. Williams, and S. Boyd; (Row 4) B. Price, C. Affholder, J. Cool, and S. Coppus; (Row 5) B. Feehan, T. Tobin, and J. Bradner; (Row 6) A. Kitchen, P. Emerine, M. Huber, and M. Brickner; (Row 7) M. Opp, R. Kuhn, and S. Walker.

Saint Wendelin's award winning band is pictured here in concert formation: (Row 1) C. Speelman, S. Filliater, D. Ray, T. Waltermeyer, L. Burdett, C. Lopez, M. Delgado, J. Schetter, and J. Roberts. (Row 2) V. Enright, P. Schetter, C. Hay, S. Miller, R. Waltermeyer, G. Allis, G. Strahm, B. Lonsway, M. Hanson, J. Johnson, J. McGee, J. Boes, D. Gundlach, R. Roberts, S. Reidling, and S. Welly. (Row 4) S. Snively, D. Grine, M. Boes, V. Lopez, B. Boes, C. Hanzely, D. Seibert, B. Marley, B. Hay, L. Steinmetz, and J. Rhoad. (Row 5) S. Smith, M. Lowery, L. Reese, F. Filliater, J. Lininger, R. Speelman, D. Clouse, T. Schetter, R. Nye, L. Borer, and T. Mitchell.

The "Swingin' Saints" who swing along with their vocalist, Marie Brickner, have entertained the student body many times throughout the year. They have also performed for a number of other functions. Pictured in this peppy combo are Sharon Miller, Jane Roberts, Roberta Waltermeyer, Gerry Allis, Dan Gundlach, Terry Mitchell, Marie Brickner, Dave Clouse, Rex Speelman, Tom Schetter, Jim Rhoad, Dan Seibert, Bill Boes, Greg Strahm, Joe McGee, Mike Lowery, and Jim Lininger.

CLARINET QUARTET: Although they can't quite compare with Benny Goodman, Margarite Boes, Virginia Enright, Donna Ray, and Pamela Schetter will soon be able to rank among the "pros."

WOODWIND QUINTET: The "nice, sweet, sounding quintet" is composed of Jackie Johnson, Sally Welly, Jane Roberts, Cheryl Speelman, and Daniel Gundlach.

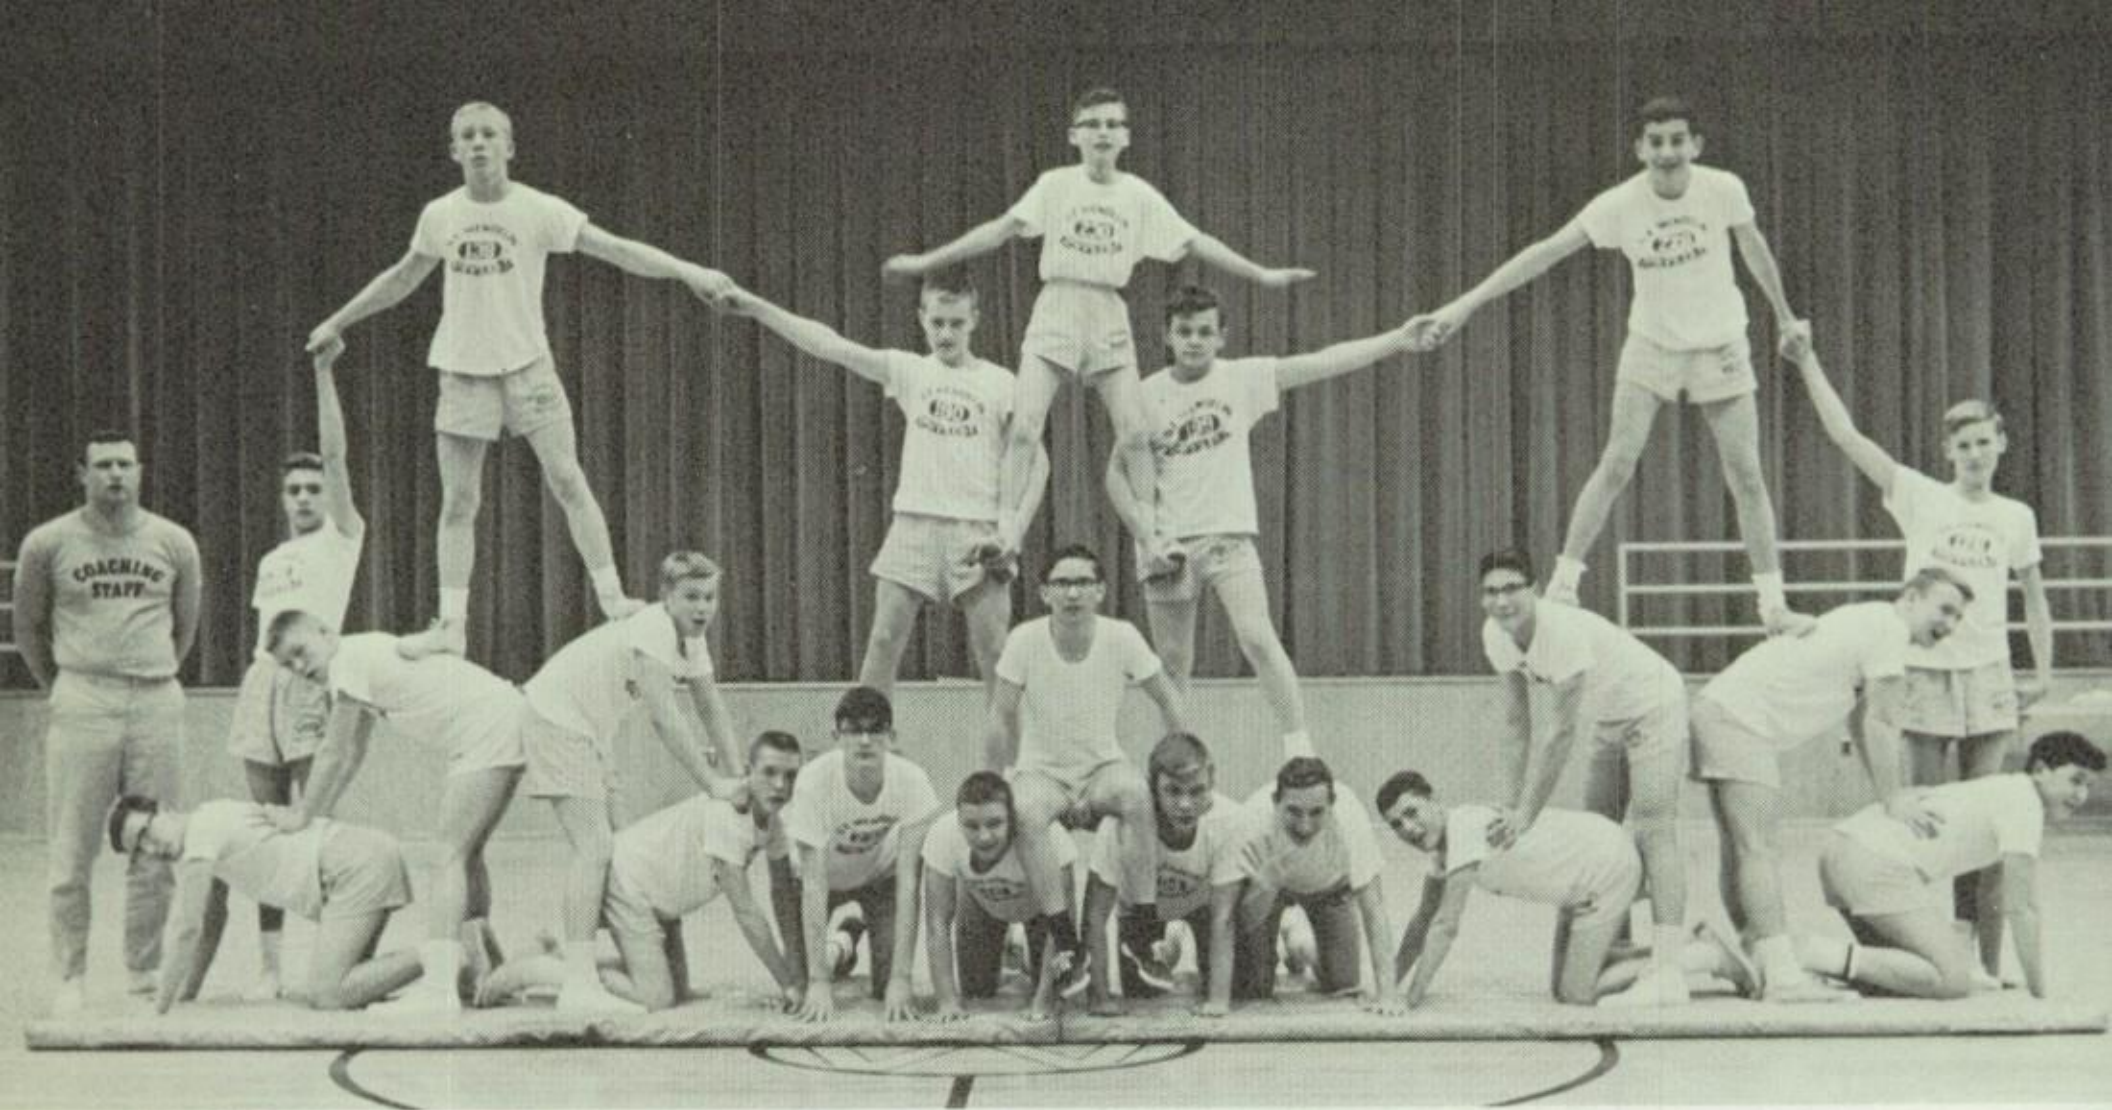

BRASS QUARTET: Greg Strahm, Rex Speelman, Jim Rhodes, and Chris Steinmetz represent the four brass sections of the band.

FRENCH HORN QUARTET: For the first year, St. Wendelin was able to present the public with a full French horn section. Mary Hanson, Gregory Strahm, Jacquelyn Johnson, and Barbara Lonsway make up the unit.

SAXOPHONE QUARTET: Three seniors and a freshman make up the saxophone quartet: Sharon Miller, Roberta Waltermeyer, Gerry Allis, and Daniel Gundlach.

Pyramids depict the towering strength of the sophomore gym class: (Row 1) P. Haganmaier, D. Brookman, M. Shroeder, R. Speelman, J. Wolph, M. Radcliff, T. Storey, J. Carrel, D. Schultz, T. Baker, R. Lonsway, T. Holman, and D. Mitchell; (Row 2) G. Scott, T. Yost, B. Huber, S. Wunderlin, J. Reinhart, G. Lonsway, and W. McKee.

Taking time out for a breather from gym class are (Row 1) K. Reinhart, T. Wonderly, J. Holderman, P. Holman, D. Cool, M. Schreiner, and K. Herrig; (Row 2) Mrs. Kenneth Herman, B. Seel, C. Hanson, L. Wade, A. Crawford, K. Herman, D. Karg, S. Bryant, S. Eckl, M. Frisch, D. Frankart, S. Brickner, and D. Logsdon; (Row 3) E. Rumschlag, K. Sertell, J. Haubert, K. Walters, K. Frisch, S. Welly, P. Smith, J. Elchert, R. Clark, B. Grine, and M. Upheil.

"Swing your partner," echoes Coach Bryant as the freshman gym class don their dancing shoes for a bit of Square Dancing. Just a few easy instructions from the "pro" and the freshmen are ready for some real "barn fun."

The girls pictured here are members of the Sodality of Our Lady. Row 1: J. Roberts, K. Wade, G. Nye, K. Murrin, C. Markey, K. La Fontain, L. Reese, and B. Lonsway. Row 2: S. Coppus, S. Snively, G. Allis, S. Bennett, H. Jinks, M. J. Elchert, L. Phillips, J. Cook, M. Schroeder, and A. Strouse. Row 3: P. Murrin, B. Marley, M. J. Depinet, M. A. Sheeran, R. Kiebel, M. A. Scharf, B. Price, J. Faeth, D. Dell, M. Brickner, and J. Kinn. Sister Mary Johnene is the moderator.

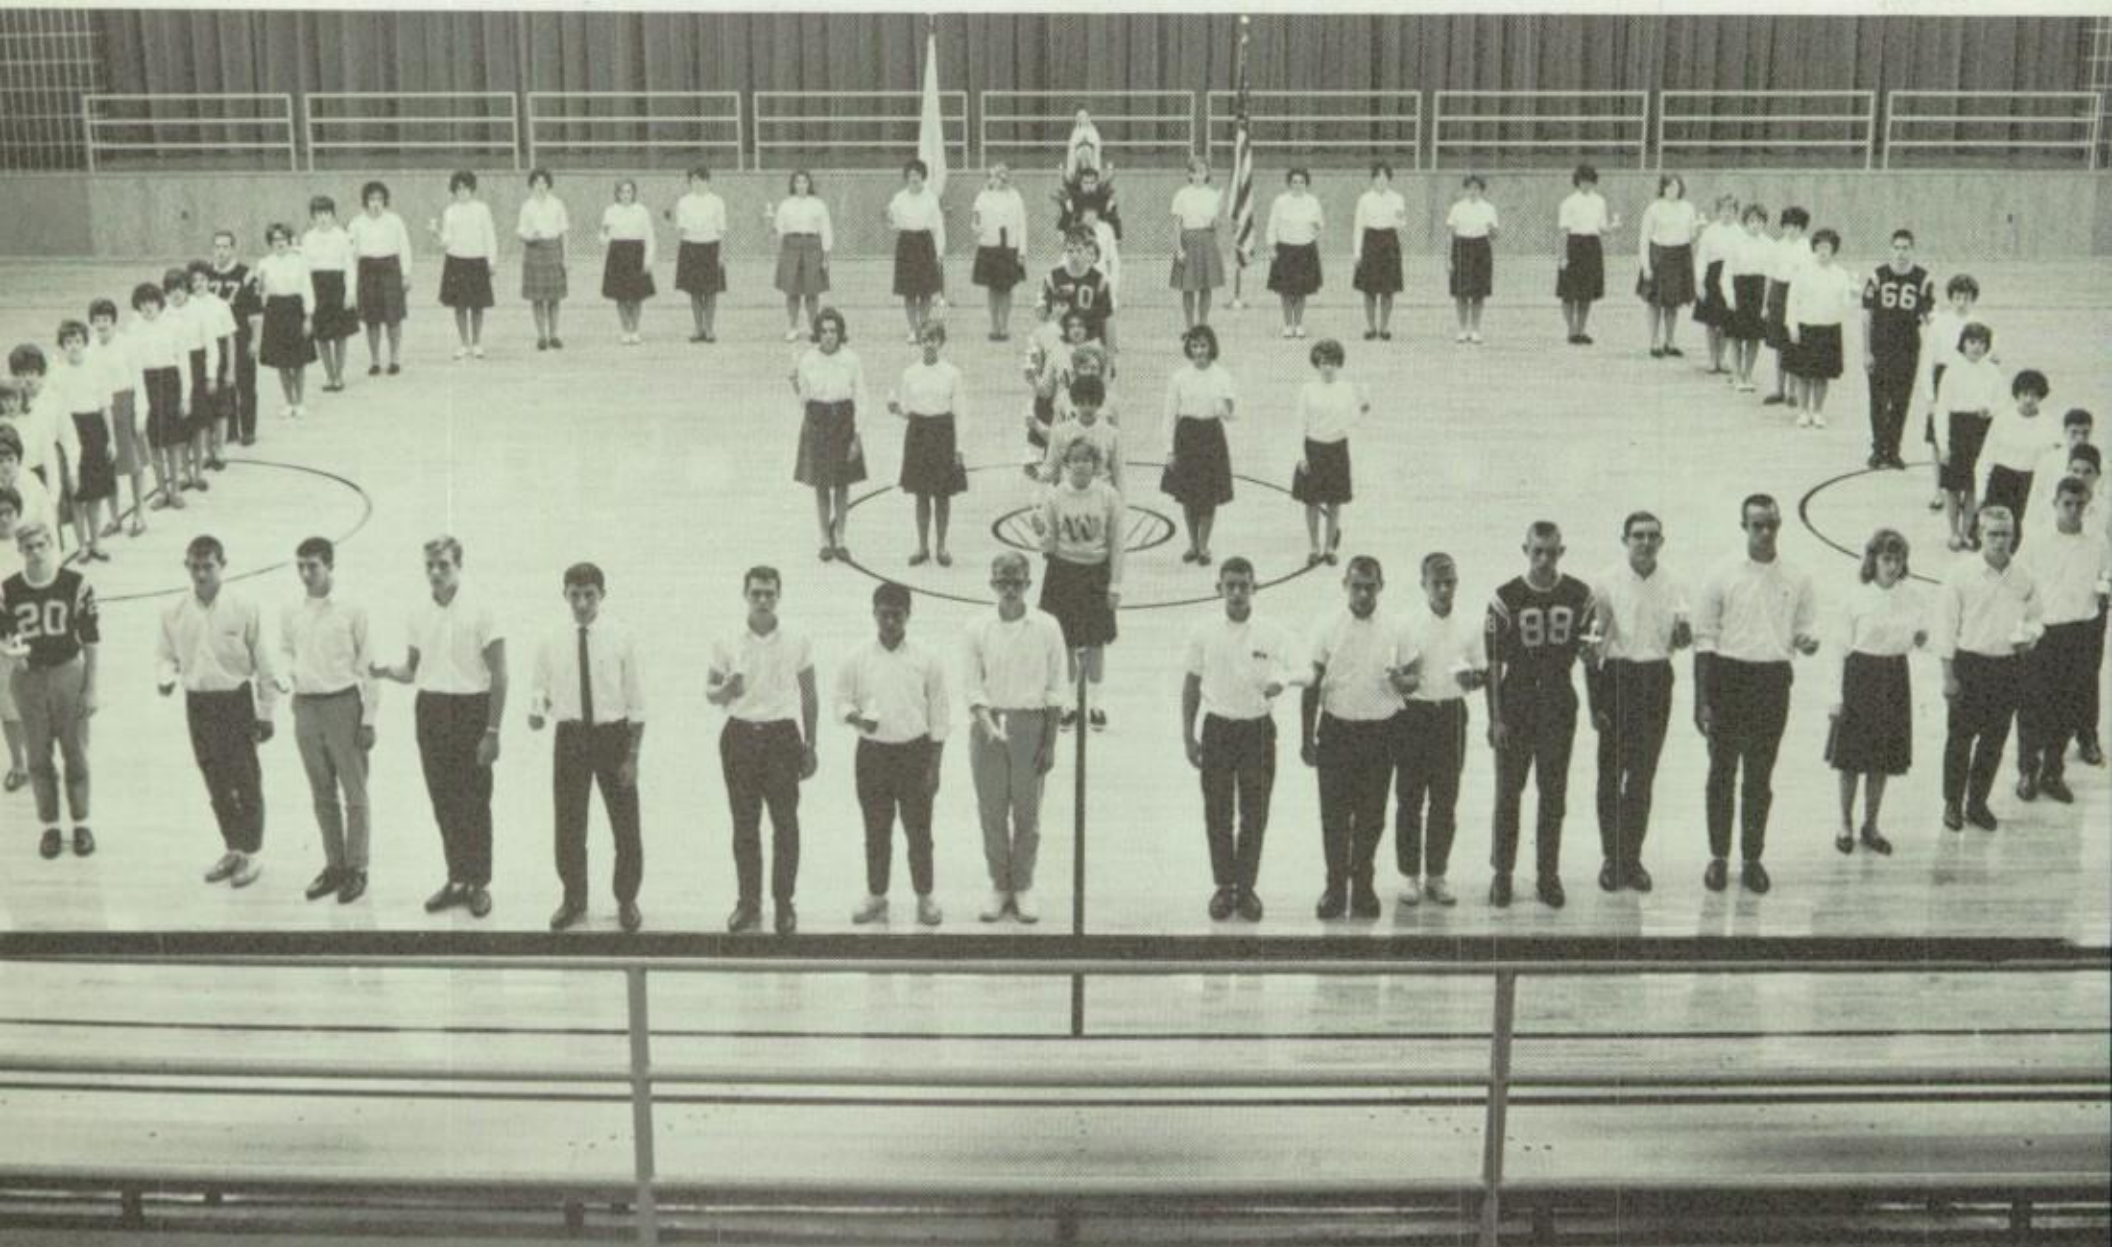

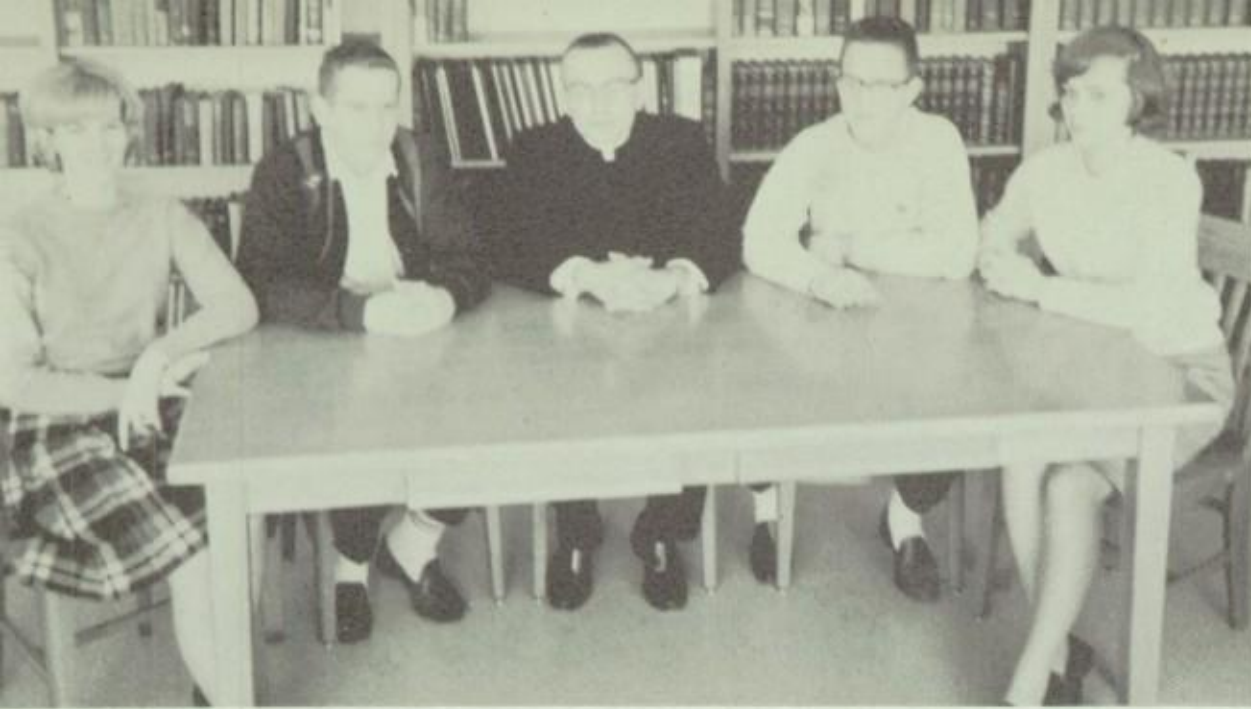

Marty Schroeder thoroughly enjoys teaching these six little Mexican children their catechism. And why shouldn't she! Giving summer instructions to these lovable and interested children is part of the activity of a dedicated Sodalist.

"To Jesus through Mary" is the motto of the Sodality of Our Lady. These officers keep the cultural and spiritual attitudes of the Sodality high: Jane Kinn, vice prefect; Jane Roberts, prefect; Mary Ann Sheeran, secretary; and Jane Elchert, treasurer.

THE LIVING ROSARY—a Sodalist's Tribute to Mary

Time out for a picture is a rare opportunity for these ever busy C.Y.O. leaders. Through careful planning many new activities were introduced this year and very successfully carried out.

Main officers pose for the shot: Carol Lyons, secretary; Joel Scott, president; Father Richard Wurzel, S.T.D., moderator; James Crawford, vice-president; and Susan Bennett, treasurer.

Many thanks go to the wonderful chairmen who planned so well and worked so hard during the past year. They include: Cheryl Speelman and Dave Clouse, cultural chairmen; Diana Wagner and Michael Lonsway, spiritual chairmen; Michaelene Weidner and Karl Snyder, social chairmen; Jim Marchion, photographer; Kathy Wade and John Bulkowski, athletic chairmen; and Terry Mitchell, sergeant-at-arms. Steve Kinn, historian, was absent for the picture.

These attractive hags are two well-known senior girls, Carol Lyons and Mickie Weidner. Carol and Mickie decided to inject a little life into the CYO Halloween Dance and did just that. The girls will probably never live this picture down.

Two Senior gals, Gretchen Nye and Camille Markey, in keeping with the spirit of the CYO's first "Old Fashioned Dance" delved into their grandmothers' closets and came up with these outfits worn by little girls of long ago.

Providing the entertainment at the C.Y.O. Football Dance were these Senior "Bruisers": Sandy Snively, Pat Huth, Diana Wagner, Sue Bennett, and Gerry Allis. The girls staged a mock football game in honor of the players.

Under stiff competition, Jeanne Reinhart, junior, comes through to cop second place in the 1963-64 CYO Deanery Spelling Contest.

Kathy Wade and Susie Bennett smile as they display one of their clever designs, the Stage Coach, at the CYO "Old-Fashioned Dance," January 27.

Featured as one of the CYO Cultural events was the trip to Bowling Green where the incomparable Ferrante and Teicher Duet entertained. The concert was sponsored by the Music Department of Bowling Green State University, early in October.

VOLLEYBALL

CYO Basketball

BASKETBALL

Some very close and exciting games feature in the CYO Basketball team this year consisting of Kelly Weber, Fred Ziegman, Duane Burns, James Gehring, John Bulkowski, Bob Alge, and Gary Grine. Kneeling: Jim Burkart, Coach John Heinsman, and Harry Peluso. Absent when the picture was taken was Bob Hoover.

"I could have danced all night" is the secret song which Kateri La Fontain's dreamy eyes sing as Karl Snyder so gallantly sweeps and dips through the evening of the Christmas Dance, "Holiday Under the Stars."

Slowly wheeling their way through the night under the stars are the guests of the juniors at the never-to-be-forgotten Christmas Dance.

Taking a brief dancing break are Jim Marchion, Jane Faeth, George Welly, and Debbie Dell.

Line forms to the right! Chaperones meet dancers . . .

The elegant young men and women have their heads in the stars, the night of the Christmas Dance. It will be over all too soon, but these few unforgettable moments of ecstasy will more than make up for all the work involved.

Keeping a watchful eye on the couples floating by at the Christmas Dance and enjoying the festivities as much as the students are the chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMeen, Dr. and Mrs. William Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Nye, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kinn.

The Foslin presents "The Music Men" for "Holiday Under the Stars."

Junior officers Sally Coppus and Marty Schroeder exchange smiles with their escorts Tom Evans and Roger Holman. The girls were co-chairmen of the annual Yuletide Formal.

These SWHS students and their guests seem absolutely "floored" by the talented Hootennanny group sponsored by the Junior Class during the Christmas holidays. Beatle-wising up the evening's entertainment are the "Freelanders," a seven-manned collegiate group from the University of Detroit.

Annual Mission Fair

"Play five cents; win a quarter" was the cry of the freshmen at the annual Mission Party. Waiting for the lucky number is quite a group of hopeful gamblers. The working men behind the wheel are Ralph Zender, Robert Miller, Dan Gundlach, and Patrick Markey.

Mr. Richard Hearden is backed up by his personal fan club. In the background many vigorous students participate in the events of the annual Mission Party.

He's made four consecutive baskets and now how many more will swish in? Standing at the free-throw line is Ed Ellis. His private scorekeeper, Steve Emerine, keeps an accurate count on his fingers.

"Ah-hal" says Gary Schumaker as his wry smile gives a hint of the lucky hand he has just been dealt. His victims in this match are Mike Miller, Gary Weimerskirch, and Ronald Williams. The intent onlookers are Jim Herman and Dave Weimerskirch.

"Accent on Leadership" is the objective of this virile group who meet weekly with their moderator, Principal Father Donald Hunter, to devise ways and means of promoting the Young Christian Students' Program. Seated with Father Hunter are Mike Lonsway, Joel Scott, Gary Grine, John Bulkowski, and Terry Miller. The five "stand-ins" are Dave Clouse, Tom Schetter, Karl Snyder, Fred Lammers, and Bob Clark.

ATHLETICS

POWER LINES

COACH KENNETH HERMAN
COACH RICHARD HEARDEN
COACH CHARLES BRYANT

Clear territory for Wade Oberle, for a time, anyway.

Dan Howbert and Jim McCarty eagerly await the decision of the final play.

Heading straight for the goal post is Steve Kinn, racing to add more points to the score for St. Wendelin.

David Scherger, assisted by other Mohawk players, downs one of the gridiron foes.

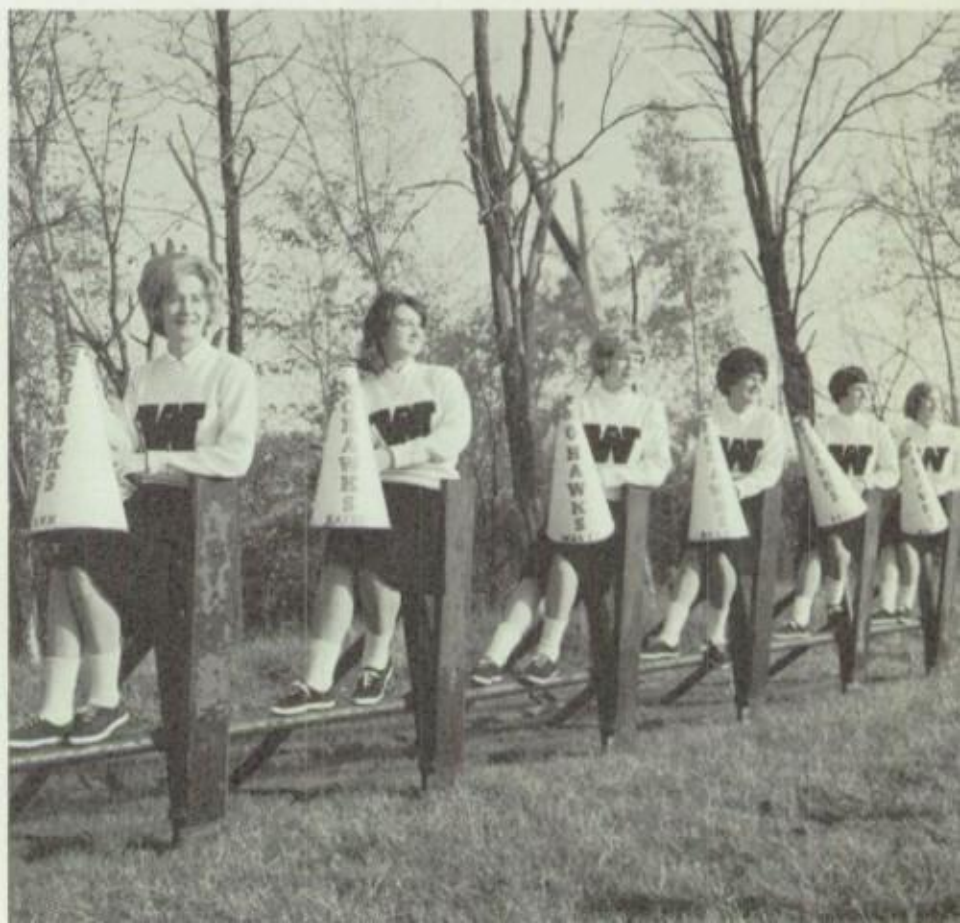

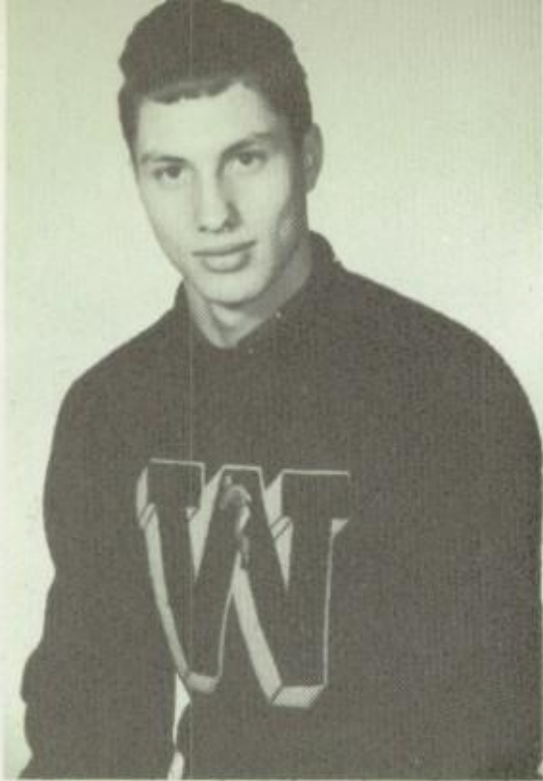

Caught in one of their few inactive moments are the peppy girls who cheered the Mohawk Football Team through wins and losses. Breaking down the group of St. Wendelin cheerleaders, we present: Bonnie Price, Martha Schroeder, Kateri La Fontain, Ann Strouse, Rene Kiebel, and Kathy Murrin.

Hendricks, and Assistant Coach Charles Bryant.

1963 GRIDIRON HEROES

The opponent sees little hope as Oberle, Theis, Miller, McCarty, and Howbert mow down the offensive line.

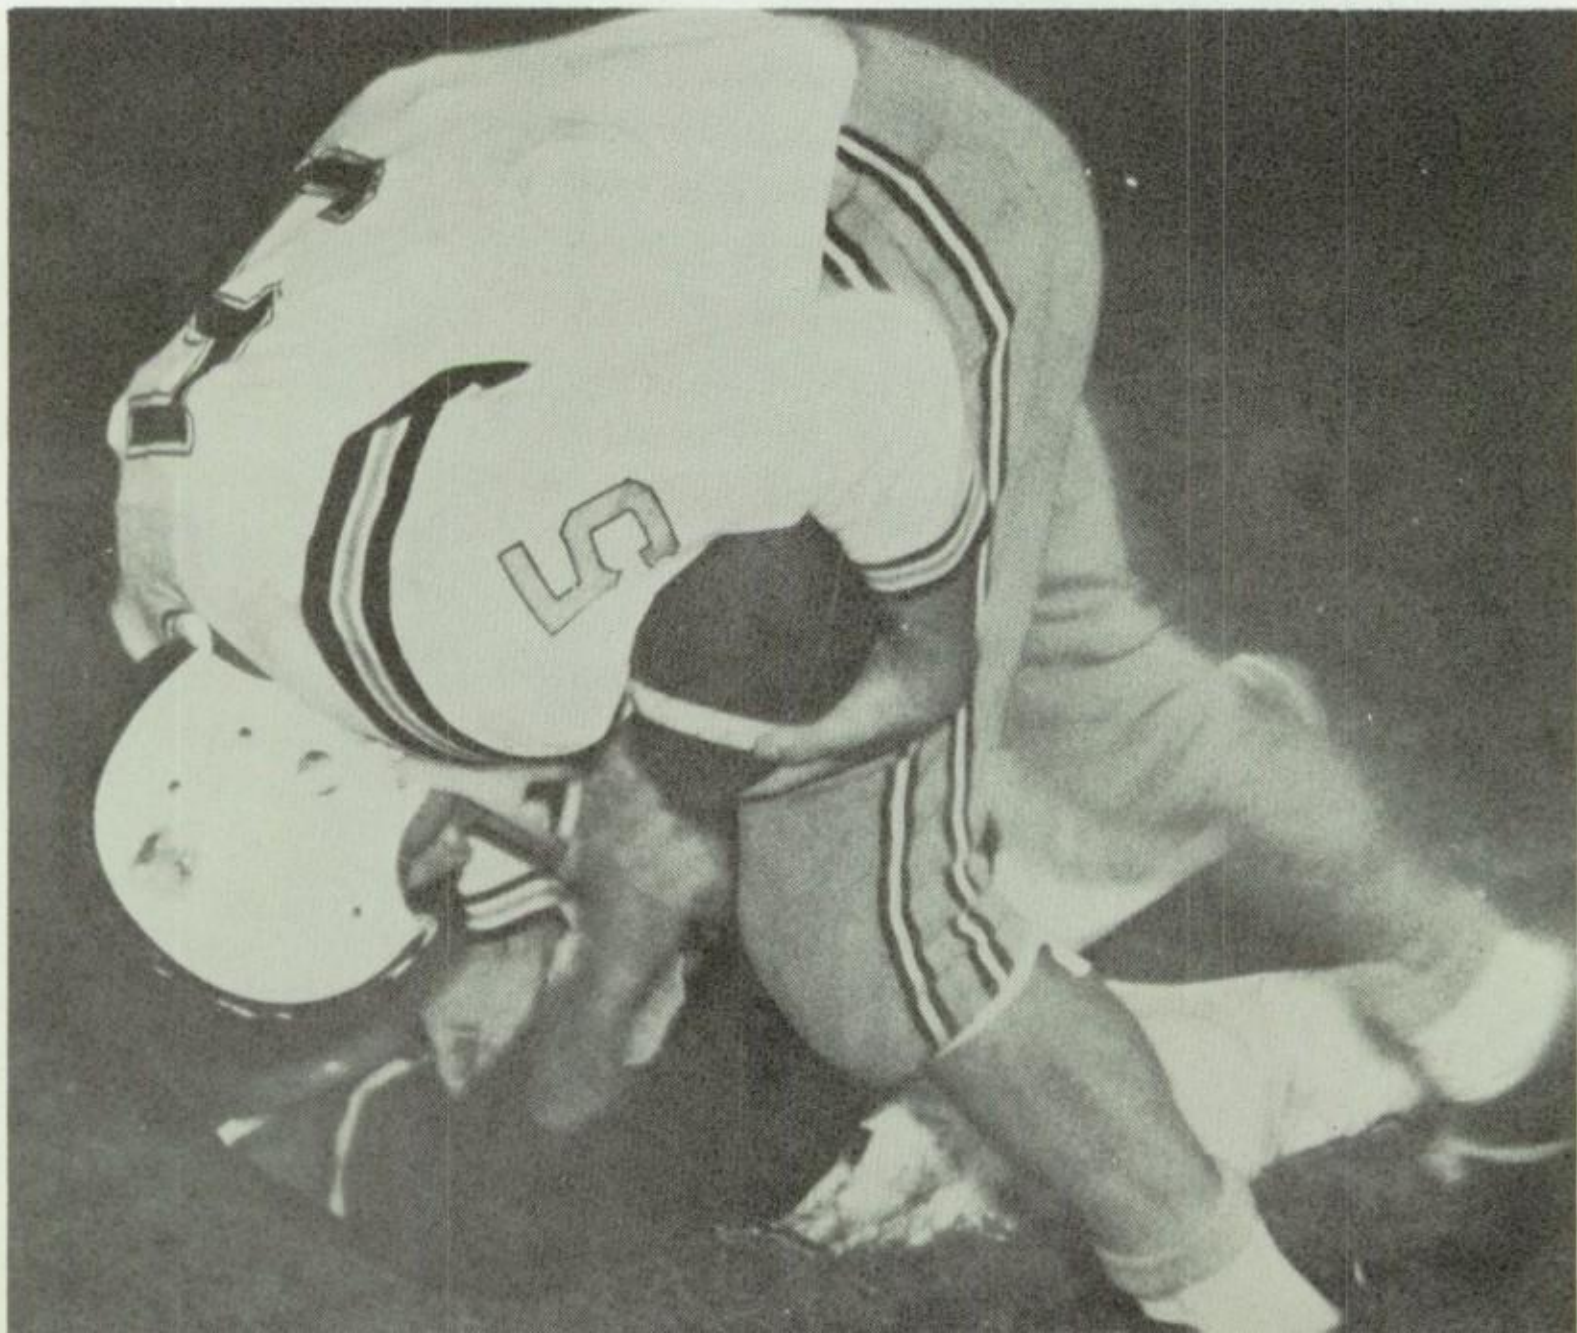

The aggressive Saints successfully hold the line for no gain.

McCarty, Hoffbauer, and Scherger make the tackle as Oberle and Howbert pursue the play.

Steve Kinn bucks his head and drives for valuable yardage.

The future of the St. Wendelin gridiron relies on this line. What's your guess?

Row 1—B. Krupp, J. Woessner, J. Mann, G. Weimerskirch, P. Bryant, M. Lowery, S. Munger, and C. Gabel. Row 2—P. Frankhart, G. Strahm, S. Moes, J. Lininger, P. Markey, D. Barchus, B. Miller, D. Hoyng, J. McGee, D. Nye, and D. Lonsway. Row 3—Mr. Weidner, F. Herrig, A. Geiger, T. Baab, L. Estrada, E. Hoffbauer, D. McMeen, B. Boes, M. Lucius, and Mr. Richard Hearnden, coach.

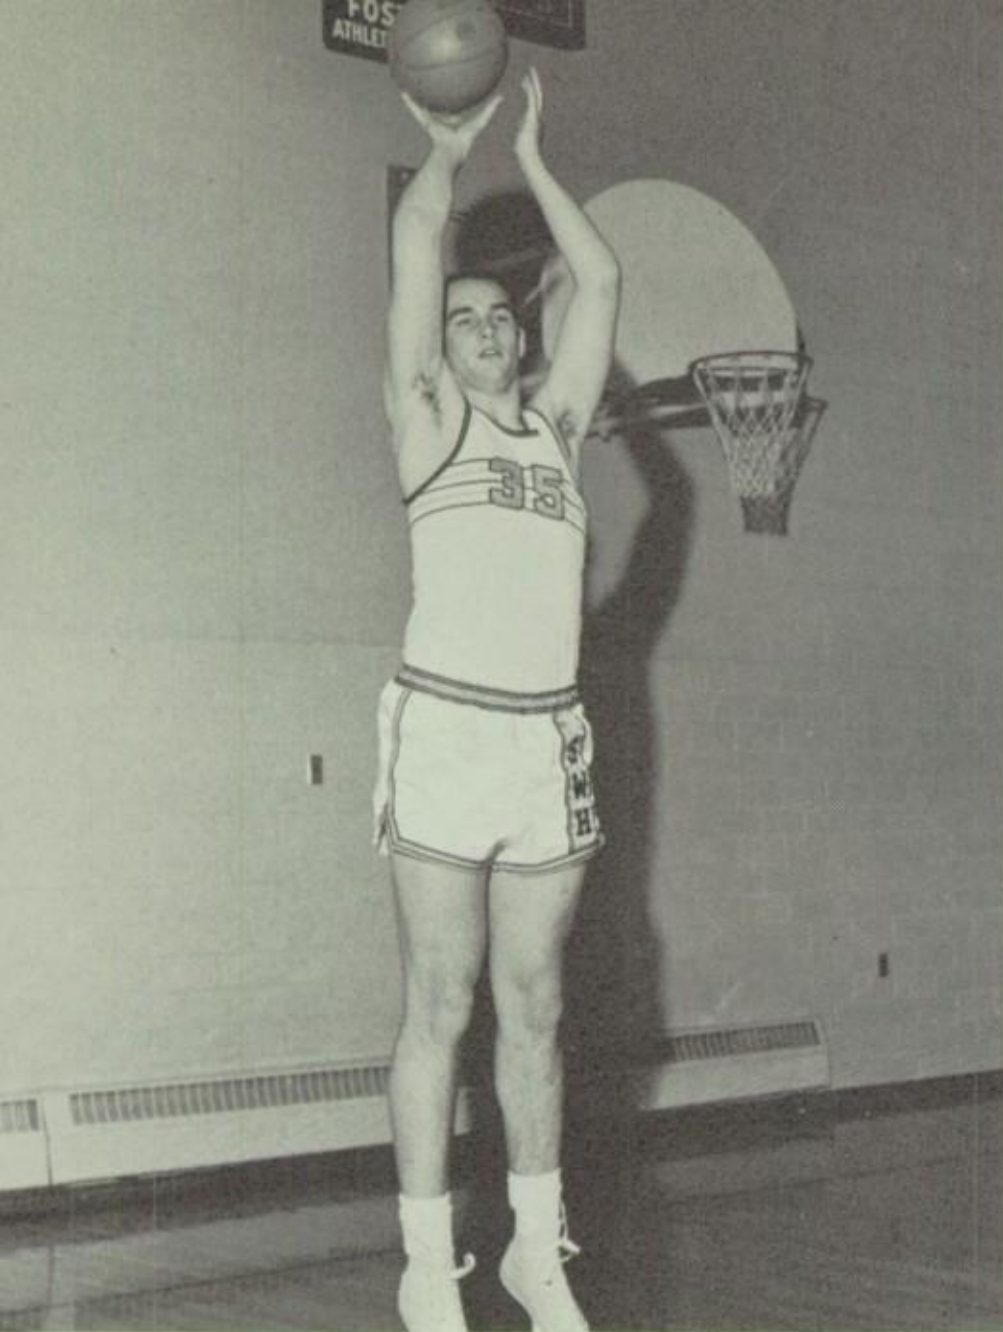

Pixie Parker, after a laborious fight for freedom, is finally being brought down as Steve Kinn and Gary Schumaker look on helplessly.

"Do or die," says George Welly as he prepares to elude an obdurate blocker to make the tackle.

BASKETBALL

Wade with his usual impressive style speeds up another basket before a good home crowd.

Stu King, a 6'1" guard, has aided the team greatly in his two years on the Starting Five. These two years have been marked by fine shooting and true teamwork.

Senior Jim Marchion, The "Dribbler," steps out of the basketball limelight after a year of fine ball handling and agile sure-footedness.

The main reason for the Saints' terrific team is to be found in their wonderful coaching staff: Mr. Kenneth Herman, Mr. Richard Hearnden, and Mr. Charles Bryant.

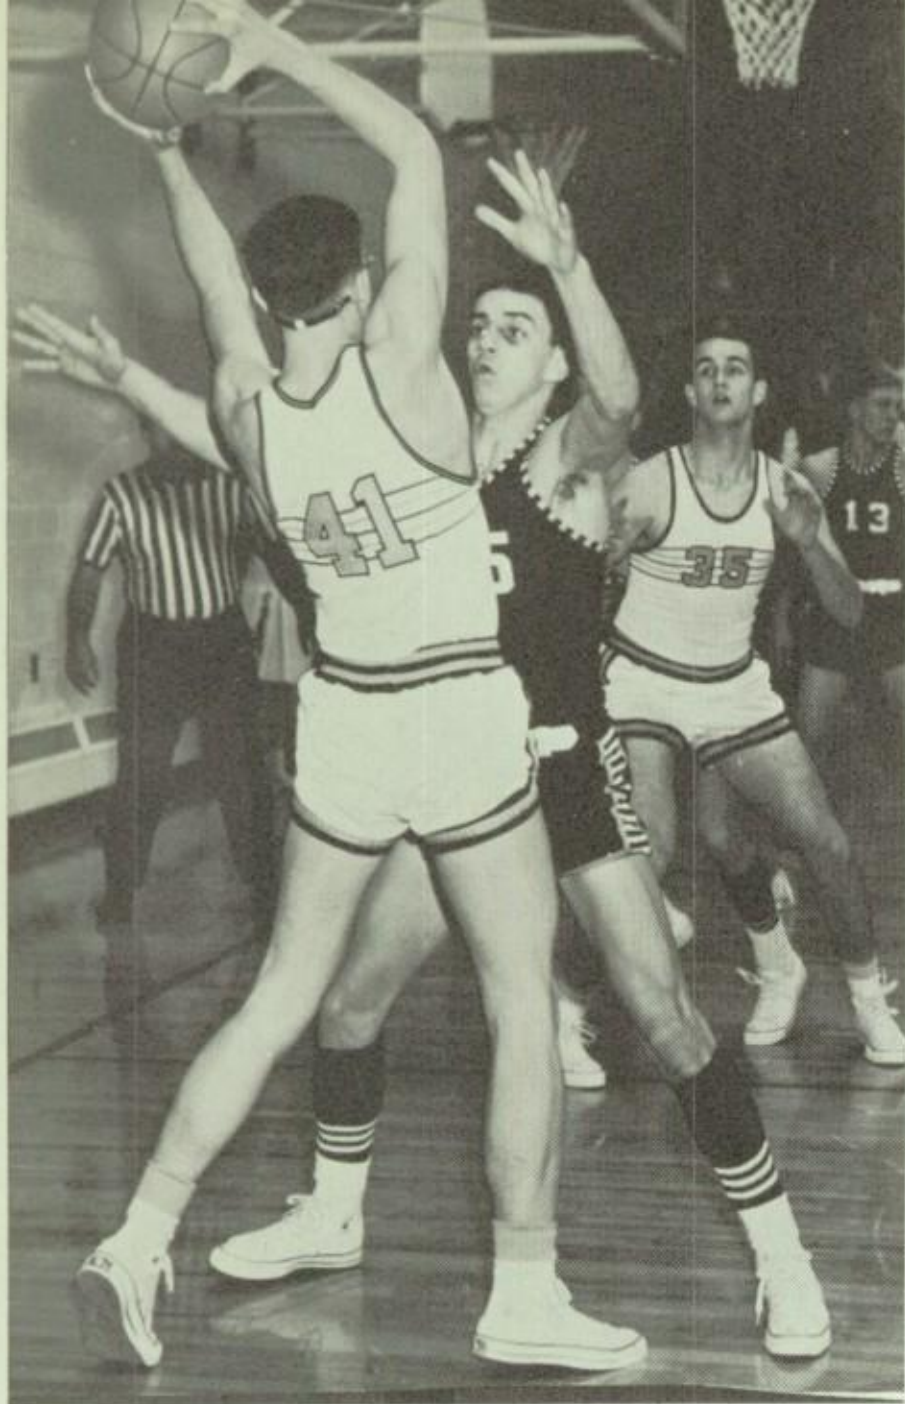

Wade Oberle, 6'5" junior center, exhibits the shooting techniques which netted him 18.6 points per game as well as a berth on the first team of the Seaway All-Conference Team.

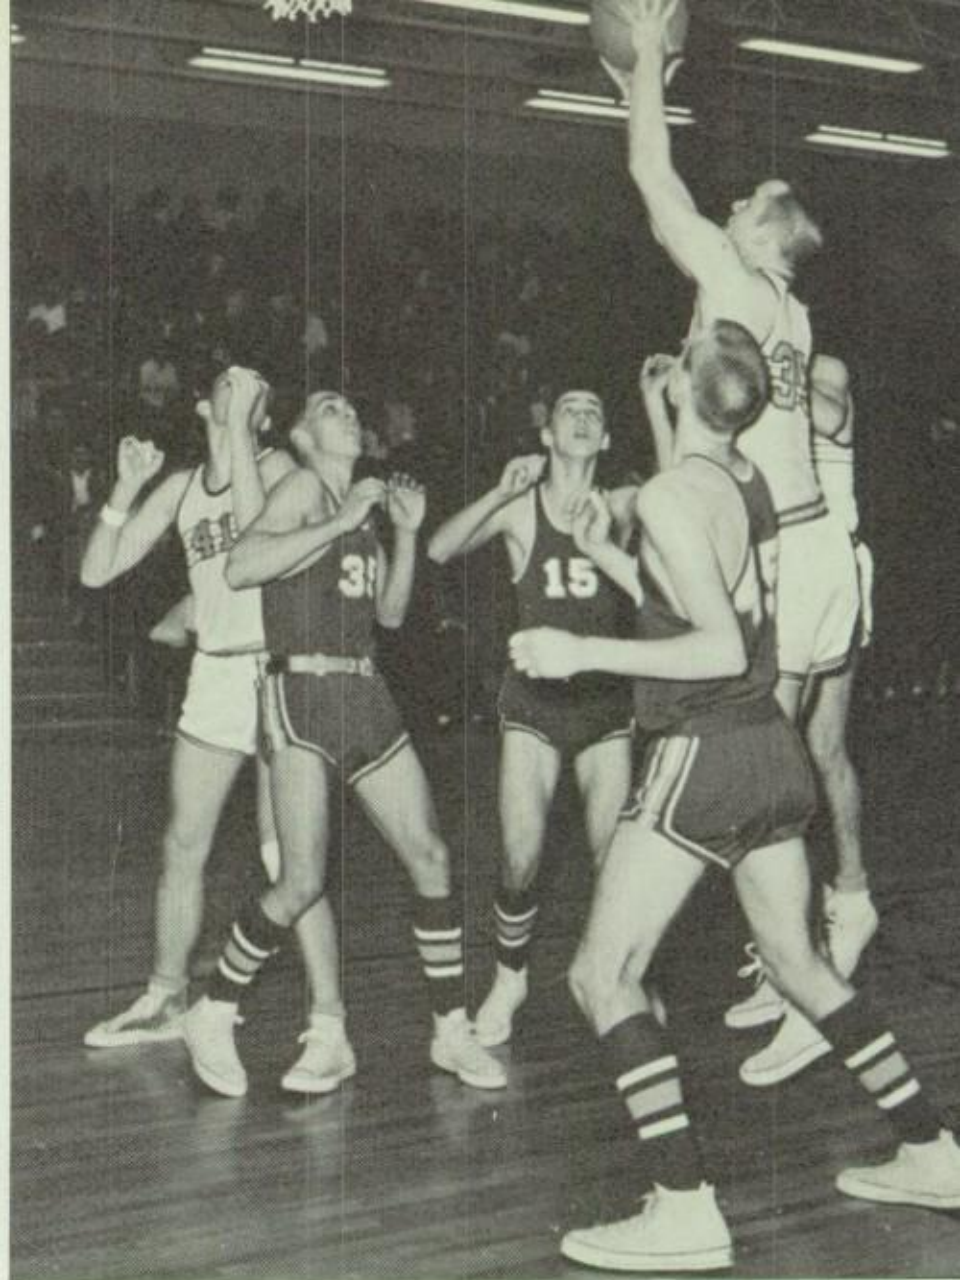

Stu King tries for another jump-shot while Big "O" stares in awe.

Senior guard, Jim "Chopper" Marchion, demonstrates his dribbling skill by amazing two Fremont defensivemen.

"Oh, no you don't, I've got the ball and I'll keep it," exclaims Terry Miller assisting Wade Oberle for two points.

Big "O"—as Wade is known to the fans—turns, wheels, and shoots for two unfailing points.

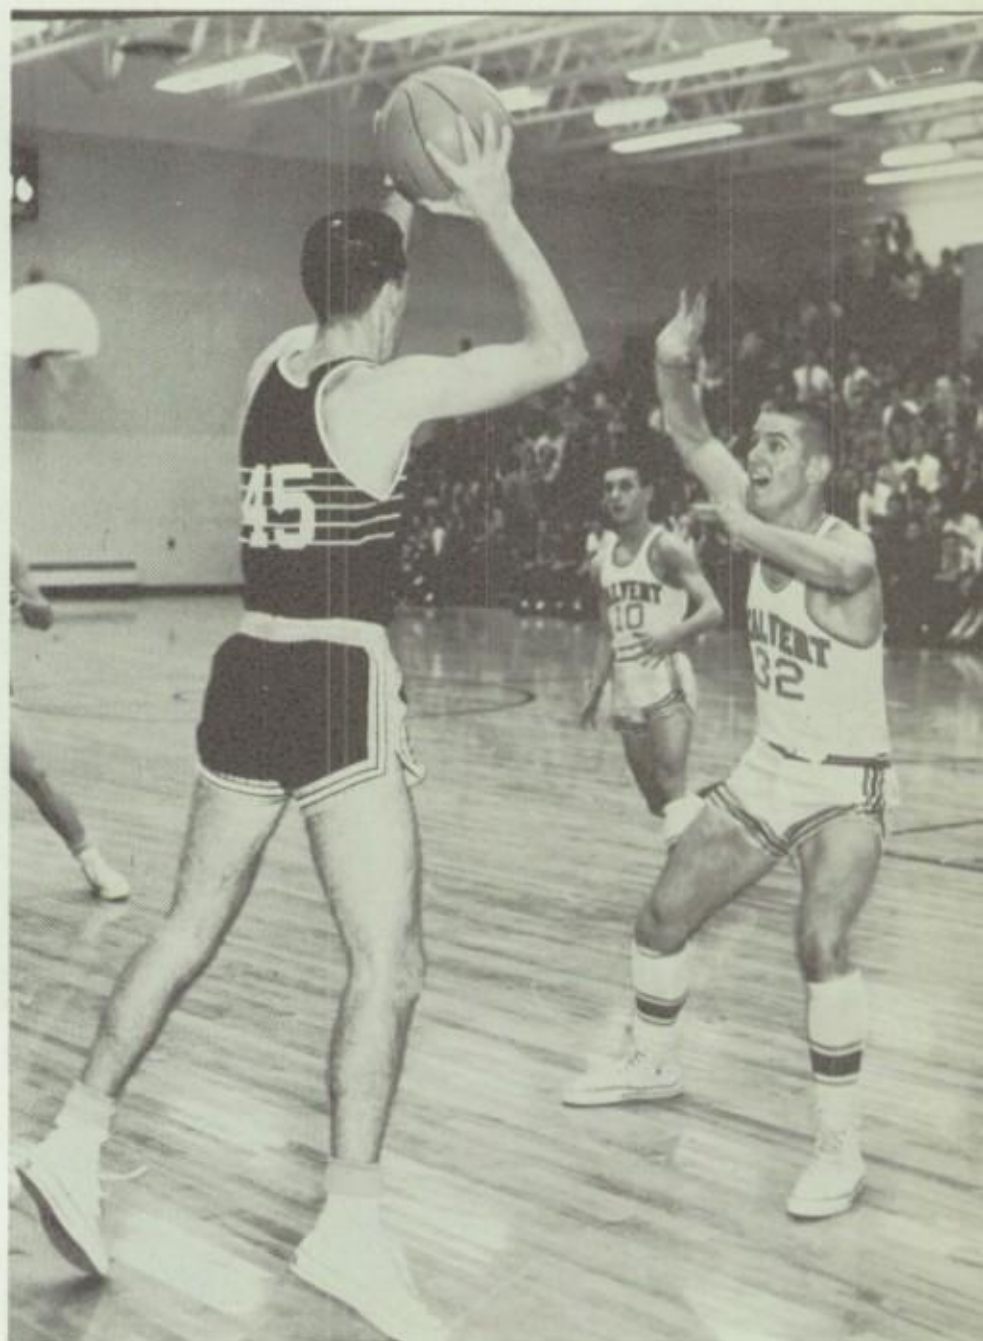

It looks as if Dave Hammer and his opponent are doing some sort of exotic dance, possibly "The Dribble Drag."

Junior-Guard George Welly, two-year letterman, displays his skill with the hook shot. George also is quite famous for his long shots.

In the preview game, Stu King holds the ball to tantalize the Calvert defense.

Coach Dick Hearden explains the next play while Terry wets his tonsils, Stu slips off his shirt, and George waits to ask for a safety pin for his trunks.

S.W.H.S.'s 6'3" sophomore sensation, Dave Hammer, knows that you aren't allowed to use two balls in the game. Oh well, he insisted on it. Dave's philosophy seems to be, "You can handle two just as easy as one." Dave's just the guy to try it, too!

One more ball swishes through the hoop as the Mohawks eagerly warm up for another big game.

Junior guard, Pete Norris, has proved this past year that he has the skill to be a fine ball player. With his versatile ball handling technique, Pete has helped the Mohawks keep their lead throughout many games.

Gorgeous George Welly displays his fabulous dribbling ability with a fast break past his man to put St. Wendelin into a 12 point lead.

With heads high and mouths wide, the S.W.H.S. Pep Club cheers, claps, and screams the Mohawks on to victory.

The Starting Five of the Mohawk's successful Reserve Team include: Terry Lord, Fred Mendoza, Roger Holman, Dan Jurrus, and Pixie Parker.

A token of gratitude and appreciation go to the Mohawks' loyal managers. Four years marks the faithful service of Senior Gerry Young. The three diligent freshman helpers are Greg Strahm, Jim Woessner, and Ed Ellis.

At the end of the 1964 Basketball Season, Juniors Wade Oberle and Terry Miller were awarded berths on the Seaway All-Conference Team. Seniors Jim Marchion and Stu King were given Honorable Mention.

"Come back here," mutters Jim Marchion as the ball rolls away from him during pre-game warm-up. Pete Norris, Wade Oberle, Stu King, Gary Peltier, Terry Miller, Dave Hammer, and Jim Clouse don't seem to be having this problem of evasive basketball.

With little time remaining, Terry Miller grabs a much needed rebound while Stu King and Wade Oberle wait anxiously to help him move the ball down court to score two more points.

Stu King looks horrified as it appears that Wade Oberle is almost out-jumped by an equally tall opponent.

Compliments of The Ahlenius Company

Trying on clothes seems to be the favorite activity of all girls and Senior Jane Roberts proves no exception. Barbara Lonsway hikes up the hem line a bit as Cheryl Speelman gives her opinion of the sleek pink suit Jane plans to purchase from Ahlenius in downtown Fostoria. Shopping at Ahlenius Store on Main Street is an adventure for all girls whether it's buying a beautiful formal or even a pair of cool looking Bermudas. Yes, from bathing suits to warm winter coats, Ahlenius Company goes through the year with the high-school miss.

Du Bre House Of Fashion

To wear such a beautiful silver and white creation is every girl's dream. This shift, modeled by Camille Markey, was purchased at Du Bre House of Fashion and is just perfect for that "special evening." To start off her night of nights, Mari Etta's Beauty Salon took Camille's long blonde tresses in hand and fashioned them into one of the latest styles.
